

Comercial National Bank Building

917 Franklin at Main Street

Details of Arched Windows

Originally built in 1904, this six story office building is one of the largest neoclassical buildings remaining in Houston. The structure was renovated in 2000 using TIRZ assistance. The scope of work consisted of exterior demolition, facade rehabilitation/renovation, basement vault topping, and streetscape enhancement within the public right-of-way.

View from Corner of Main and Franklin

View of Completed Project

Image of Ornate Entry
Treatment